Backdecker “Adelheid” | Classic ca. 1920 | Price reduced to EUR 27,500

The Backdecker “Adelheid” is an original classic with distinctive character from the roaring twenties. Hull and superstructure are of riveted steel construction; the classic lines have been preserved and professionally restored. The vessel was completely rebuilt in 2014 and today presents itself as a well-maintained, operational classic boat that impresses both visually and technically.

The “Adelheid” combines historic charm with solid technology and lovingly executed interior fittings. The interior was finished in great detail and with craftsmanship in oak and mahogany. Materials and workmanship combine classic style with contemporary comfort. Two berths, an electric coolbox, WC and a 70-litre fresh water tank make the boat appealing for relaxed weekends on board as well.
