Description

The Feeling 32 is a real family boat. The boat has everything a family needs on the water. The beautiful sailing boat has a Lazy Jack system and a Rolfock.

The Feeling 32 has 2 cabins, a separate toilet, a chart table and a kitchen with a fridge, stove with oven and hot water. The Feeling 32 also has heating, which is very cosy.

The boat has a swing keel, which makes it possible for you to sail the shallow inland waters of the Frisian lakes and to overnight at the most popular anchorages. The IJsselmeer and Wadden Sea are also very good for sailing with a boat like the Feeling 32.
