FORSLUND 1953 – CLASSIC WOODEN MOTOR CABIN BOAT
Scandinavian elegance – New Nanni engine – Electric conversion possible
Price:

€18,500 petrol version
Electric version on request

Discover this magnificent 1953 Forslund motor cabin boat, a true testament to the expertise of the prestigious Swedish shipyards.
Renowned for the quality of its pre- and post-war builds, the Forslund yard designed boats with elegant lines, inspired by the famous American Chris-Craft runabouts.
With its wooden semi-displacement hull, varnished mahogany and original rechromed fittings, this classic boat combines timeless charm, authenticity and boating pleasure.
NEW AND PERFORMANT ENGINE
The boat benefits from a recent mechanical installation comprising:

New Nanni turbo diesel engine, 65 hp

New propeller shaft and propeller

New 100-litre fuel tank

Fully redone electrical system

Recent battery

Thanks to its semi-displacement hull, this Forslund easily reaches 17 knots and offers excellent behaviour in choppy water.
ELECTRIC CONVERSION POSSIBLE WITH YUNIBOAT
Give this classic boat a new dimension by combining the charm of wood with modern electro drive!
A specialist in eco-refurbishment and extending the service life of boats, YUNIBOAT can study and carry out the conversion of this Forslund to a 100% electric drive.
This transformation would allow you to enjoy:

Silent navigation with no direct emissions during use

Remarkable boating comfort, without engine vibrations

A modern drive respecting the aesthetics and authenticity of the boat

A second life geared towards more responsible boating

The power, range and budget of this transformation will be defined after a personalised technical study.
Two options are available to you: keep its new Nanni diesel engine or opt for a tailor-made electric conversion.
