The 'Vrouwe Franciska' was built in 1983 at the Van Lochum shipyard in Bergschenhoek as a yacht. Initially used as a private yacht, the vessel was converted into a comfortable charter yacht in 1993/94. Sailing on the “Vrouwe Franciska” is Lemsteraak sailing in a special form. Equipped with Mariphon, echo sounder, binoculars, large compass, plotter and the latest nautical charts, the sailing grounds of the inland lakes and the Wadden Sea are open to you. You can enjoy sailing in the spacious cockpit. The vessel can be steered hydraulically with the steering wheel. Below deck, a large saloon and a splendid galley invite you to relax. The vessel has 2 cabins for 2 persons and 2 cabins for 3 persons. Two further guests can sleep in the saloon.
