Marex 375 – Elegant motor yacht with Scandinavian comfort and impressive equipment
Year built 2020 | Volvo Penta D6-480 | only approx. 170 operating hours | €369,000
Sometimes it is love at first sight – and this Marex 375 is exactly such a boat!
This beautiful Marex 375 combines timeless Scandinavian design, excellent handling and a well-thought-out layout in a motor yacht that impresses both on longer cruises and on relaxed weekend outings.
With its elegant white hull, generous window areas and harmonious lines, she is a real eye-catcher on any waters. But she impresses not only with her looks, but above all with her inner values.
Powerful, reliable and with low operating hours
The Marex is powered by a powerful Volvo Penta D6-480 diesel engine with 480 hp and stern drive. With only approx. 170 operating hours, this yacht offers the best prerequisites for many more unforgettable hours on the water.
Electronic throttle, fully automatic trim tabs and bow thruster ensure comfortable and relaxed manoeuvring.
Feeling at home on board – even on longer trips
Two cosy cabins with a total of four berths provide ample space for family and guests.
The tastefully designed interior impresses with a fully equipped galley including a 3-burner gas stove, oven, refrigerator and icebox. In addition, there is a bathroom with shower and toilet, as well as diesel heating and a hot water boiler.
So nothing stands in the way of longer stays on board.
Excellent equipment for carefree watersports
Technically, this Marex leaves hardly any wishes unfulfilled:
• GPS and plotter
• Reversing camera and echo sounder
• Electric anchor windlass with 50 m anchor chain
• 12 V bow thruster
• Solar plant with 4 x 100 W
• Battery charger and extensive onboard electrics
• Diesel heating
• Bimini and boat cover
• Bathing ladder, fenders and mooring lines
• Extensive safety equipment
What makes this yacht particularly interesting:
The Marex is in very good condition. Before handover, it will also receive a new cover. In addition, the teak deck will be completely refinished. This further enhances the yacht both visually and functionally.
