Description

This text has been translated automatically.

For sale is a Maxi 87 built in 1976, a solid and spacious cruising sailboat with good sailing qualities and extensive equipment. The Maxi offers ample space for relaxed day trips, weekend cruises or longer voyages. Thanks to its well-thought-out layout (standing headroom approx. 1.84 m) and its versatile sail wardrobe, it suits both beginners and experienced sailors. Mainsail, approx. 25 m², good condition; genoa, approx. 27 m², good condition; spinnaker, approx. 50 m²; blister, approx. 42 m²; roller-furling genoa with furling system; spinnaker pole; aluminium mast; mainsheet traveller; sails partly by Jan Segel; bow cabin with 2 berths; 2 further sleeping places in the saloon; galley with 2-burner spirit stove, sink; separate WC with pump toilet. Navigation and equipment on board: compass, echo sounder, automatic steering gear, 2 batteries, shore power connection, electric bilge pump, anchor with chain and rode, spray hood, winter cover, guard rail and pulpit, bowsprit, deck coating with KiwiGrip. According to the information provided, the boat has been regularly maintained. Maintenance records for the engine are available.
A classic cruising sailboat with extensive equipment at an attractive price.
