Description

Do you want to discover the Costa Brava in an exclusive and unique way? Climb aboard the Pangea to enjoy a 6-hour day charter that will take you from L'Estartit to the picturesque village of Cadaqués, sailing through some of the most spectacular landscapes of the Mediterranean.

During the crossing, you'll enjoy the wild beauty of the Montgrí, Illes Medes and Baix Ter Natural Park, hidden coves with crystal clear waters and the jagged coastline that has made this region famous. You can relax on board, sunbathe and, if you wish, stop for a dip in a secret cove.

The highlight of the day is the arrival at Cadaqués, a charming village of white houses and cobbled streets that enchanted artists such as Salvador Dalí. You will have the option to have lunch on board facing its bay or disembark and enjoy a meal at the famous beach bar, La Sal, known for its relaxed atmosphere and Mediterranean cuisine overlooking the sea. After lunch, we will set sail back to L'Estartit, enjoying the sunset on the horizon as evening falls.

A perfect experience for groups of friends, families or couples looking for a magical day on the Costa Brava!
