Description

"Python C-33
It stands out for its high technical performance and large outdoor spaces, with two large distinct areas:
- an extensive aft cockpit with a fully equipped galley and relaxation area;
- a spacious bow sundeck.
The refined lines of this maxi rib make it unmistakable and inimitable. The on-board home automation technology adopts solutions never seen before in this category. An exclusive and innovative design, enriched by fine materials and luxury finishes, with large interior spaces, separate bathroom and two large windows on the sides, allow a comfortable stay for four people and make the on-board experience unique."
